[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
This [G] morning at half past [D] nine
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train,
And I [E7] swear I ain't [A] lyin'
They [D] made clean off with [D7] sixteen G's and left [G] two men lyin' [D] cold
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
And [A] they made off with the [D] gold

[D] Charlie Jones was the engineer
He had [G] twenty years on the [D] line
[D] He kissed his wife at the station dear, this [E7] morning at six thirty-[A] five Every [D] thing went fine until [D7] half past nine,
When [G] Charlie looked up and [D] saw
[D] Men with horses, men with guns and [A] no sign of the [D] law

[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
This [G] morning at half past [D] nine
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train,
And I [E7] swear I ain't [A] lyin'
[D] They made clean off with [D7] sixteen G's and left [G] two men lyin' [D] cold
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
And [A] they made off with the [D] gold

[D] [D] [A] [D]

[D] Amos White was the luggage man
And [G] dearly loved his [D] job
[D] The company they rewarded him with a [E7] golden watch and [A] fob
Well [D] Amos he was a- [D7] markin' time
When the [G] door blew off his [D] car
They found Amos White in fifteen pieces, [A] fifteen miles [D] apart

[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
This [G] morning at half past [D] nine
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train,
And I [E7] swear I ain't [A] lyin'
[D] They made clean off with [D7] sixteen G's and left [G] two men lyin' [D] cold
[D] Somebody robbed the Glendale train
And [A] they made off with the [D] gold
[D] Yes, somebody robbed the Glendale train
And [A] they made off with the [D] gold [D]↓ [A]↓ [D]↓
