

If You Are Going to Play in Texas – Danny Mitchell and Murry Kellum

Strum: ↓↑↓↑↓↑↓↑

Chorus:

[A] If you're gonna play in [E7]Texas, you [D]gotta have a fiddle in the [A]band.
That lead guitar is [E7]hot, but not for [D]Louisiana [E7]Man.

So [F#m]rosin up that [E7]bow for "Faded [D]Love"and let's all [A]dance.

If you're gonna play in [E7]Texas, you [D]gotta have a fiddle in the [F#m]band.

F#m E7 D A

I re-[A]member down in [E7]Houston we were [D]puttin' on a [A]show
When a cowboy in the [E7]back stood up and [D]yelled, "Cotton-Eyed [E7]Joe!"
He said, "We [A] love what you're [E7]doin'. Boys[D] don't get us [A]wrong,
There's just somethin' [E7]missin' in your [A]song.

Chorus:

[A] If you're gonna play in [E7]Texas, you [D]gotta have a fiddle in the [A]band.
That lead guitar is [E7]hot, but not for [D]Louisiana [E7]Man.

If you're gonna play in [E7]Texas, you [D]gotta have a fiddle in the [F#m]band.

So we [A]dusted off our [E7]boots and put our [D]cowboy hats on [A]straight.
Them Texans raised the [E7]roof when Jeff [D]opened up his [E7]case.
You [A]say y'all all wanna [E7]two-step. You [D]say ya wanna doe-si-[A]doe.
Well, here's a fiddlin' [E7]song before we [A]go.

Chorus:

[A] If you're gonna play in [E7]Texas, you [D]gotta have a fiddle in the [A]band.
That lead guitar is [E7]hot, but not for [D]Louisiana [E7]Man.

So [F#m]rosin up that [E7]bow for "Faded [D]Love"and let's all [A]dance.

If you're gonna play in [E7]Texas, you [D]gotta have a fiddle in the [F#m]band.
