F/C/F/G - one strum pattern per chord

[C] Listen children [G] to a story [Am] that was written [C] long ago
[F] Bout a kingdom [C] on a mountain [F] and the valley [G] folk below.
[C] On the mountain [G] was a treasure [Am] buried deep [C] beneath a stone
[F] And the valley [C] people swore they'd [F] have it for their [G] very [C] own.

[C] Go ahead and hate you [Em] neighbor, [F] go ahead and cheat a [C] friend.
[C] Do it in the name of [Em] heaven. [F] Justify it in the [C] end.
[C] There won't be any trumpets [Em] blowin' [F] come the judgment [C] day.
[C] On the bloody morning [F]↓ after, [F] one tin soldier [C] rides away.

[C] So the people of [G] the valley [Am] sent a message [C] up the hill
[F] Asking for the [C] buried treasure [F] tons of gold for [G] which they'd kill.
[C] Came an answer [G] from the kingdom "With [Am] our brothers [C] we will share
[F] All the secrets [C] of our mountain, [F] all the riches [G] buried [C] there."

[C] Go ahead and hate you [Em] neighbor, [F] go ahead and cheat a [C] friend.
[C] Do it in the name of [Em] heaven. [F] Justify it in the [C] end.
[C] There won't be any trumpets [Em] blowin' [F] come the judgment [C] day.
[C] On the bloody morning [F]↓ after, [F] one tin soldier [C] rides away.

[C] Now the valley [G] cried with anger [Am] mount your horses [C] draw your sword
[F] And they killed the [C] mountain people [F] sure they'd won their [G] just reward.
[C] Now they stood [G] beside the treasure [Am] on the mountain, [C] dark and red
[F] Turned the stone and [C] looked beneath it
[F] ↓ "Peace on earth" was [G] all it [C] said.

[C] Go ahead and hate you [Em] neighbor, [F] go ahead and cheat a [C] friend.
[C] Do it in the name of [Em] heaven. [F] Justify it in the [C] end.
[C] There won't be any trumpets [Em] blowin' [F] come the judgment [C] day.
[C] On the bloody morning [F]↓ after, [F] one tin soldier [C] rides away.
